Charleston by Vanessa Bell

Charleston is a unique museum preserving the home of artists Vanessa Bell and Duncan Grant. Both were pioneers of a movement that took art beyond the canvas, so to visit the House is to be immersed in a world where colour, design and radical thinking take centre stage. Charleston promotes the legacy of the Bloomsbury group, which included Virginia Woolf, John Maynard Keynes and E.M. Forster

New Book

Berwick church is a gem of medieval Sussex church architecture, added to in the 19thC, but the paintings by Duncan Grant, assisted by Vanessa Bell, create an exceptional building. Grade 1 listed, so nothing should change here, with decorations encouraged by Bishop Bell of Chichester in the 1940s
