Charleston Farmhouse, Berwick Church and Monk's House

16 May 2019

28 of us departed from Rustington for our first visit of the day: Charleston Farmhouse. Our visit coincided with that of the Duchess of Cornwall, who arrived to open the new Gallery. Although only a few got a glimpse of her, we all benefitted. An official welcome with lots of coffee, tea and biscuits, followed by an 80 minutes tour with excellent guides and time for the gallery and the garden.

This was definitely the highlight of our day.

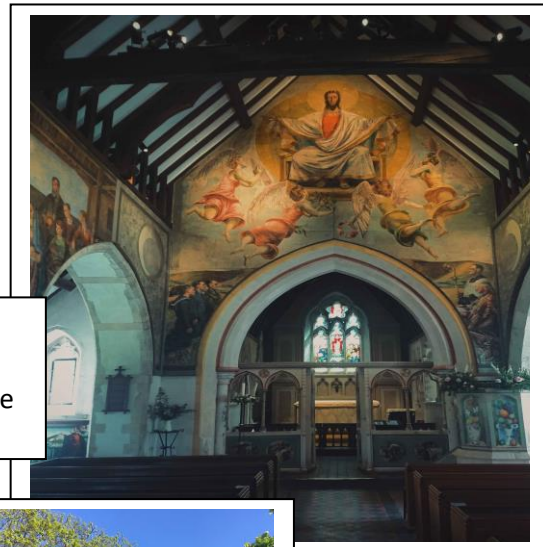

Proof she was there!

We were lucky with the sun.

Monk's House – a gentle walk through the village for our last visit.
