

Champs Hill: Newlyn School Exhibition/The Gardens

Tuesday 7 May 2019

Feedback

21 members took advantage of the opportunity to see this exhibition. We were greeted by Mrs Mary Bowerman who gave us a short introduction to the works, but also a potted history of the house and gardens. Coffee and biscuits were offered at the start of the visit and again at the end after we had a chance to wander round the gardens.

'David Bowerman' seated in the garden he created – a sculpture by Philip Jackson

'What's not to like' – sun, a riot of colour, charming sculptures, an excellent show of paintings. One of those lazy afternoons enjoyed by our Art Society's members.
