

Metz & Luxembourg

Arranged with Travel Editions Group Travel with The Arts Society Arun

Temple Neuf, Metz

Thursday 9th – Sunday 12th March 2023 – 4 days from *£965pp

It was in Meisenthal that École de Nancy founder Émile Gallé first learnt the craft of glass blowing and decorating, which he used to great effect in his interpretation of Art Nouveau. The whole region is famed for both its glass craft and pottery. From your base in the dignified city of Metz, expert Prof. Anne Anderson will guide you through the wonderful works by Gallé, Daum, Lalique and Saint-Louis as well as explore the art and Art Nouveau of elegant Luxembourg.

Day by day itinerary

Day 1

Travel by Eurostar and TGV from St Pancras to Metz. Transfer to the hotel for check-in. This evening there will be a welcome drink, dinner with wine at a local restaurant and a lecture, 'Playing with Fire: the Glass of Gallé and Lalique'.

Day 2

Saint-Louis Crystal Museum, Metz and Musée Lalique Wingensur-Moder.

Morning visit to La Grande Place for the Saint-Louis Crystal Museum, a former royal factory, the oldest manufacturer of glass in the world, dating back to 1586, with over 2000 crystal glass items on display. This afternoon, head to Wingensur-Moder to the Musée Lalique, which houses a superb collection of more than 650 works that charts the career and techniques used by Lalique and his successors to achieve effects in glass. This evening a second lecture from Anne - 'Art Nouveau in Metz and Luxembourg'. The evening is free for you to pick one of the many local restaurants in the area to enjoy dinner.

Day 3

Full day Luxembourg.

A full day visit to the elegant city of Luxembourg, where highlights include the extensive collection of fine art at the National Museum of History and Art (MNHA), dating from the Middle Ages to the 20th Century, the medieval Cathedral and old town, as well as a tour of some of the city's extensive collection of exquisite Art Nouveau buildings, centred around the "Plateau Bourbon" district. This evening we will have dinner with wine at the Art Nouveau Brasserie Flo (approx 15-20 minute walk from the hotel).

Day 4

Day free in Metz and home.

Morning free in Metz to explore the Cathedral or Centre Pompidou Metz, a satellite site of the National Collection of Modern Art in Paris, before afternoon transfer back to the station for the return TGV to Paris and onwards by Eurostar to St Pancras.
