Visit to Philip Jackson's Studio

Monday 24 June 2024

Tour of the studio, lecture by Philip and lunch in the Bluebell pub, followed by an opportunity to wander round his garden to admire his sculptures

The artist in his studio. As Philip is working on an assignment, the main part of his studio is out of bounds.

The Venetian Carnival inspired many of his Studio Sculptures with their golden masks; hands and body language indicating mood and character.

Bomber Command

Most impressive though is his 'bread and butter' output, the Queen Mother in her robes, Ghandi, footballers. The Bomber Command can be found in Green Park.
