

Coach Trip to Goodwood House and Petworth House with lunch at The Welldiggers Arms Petworth

Wednesday August 7th

£58 per person including Lunch

plus National Trust admission at Petworth – paid on the day if applicable
Drinks with lunch & other refreshments to be purchased individually

Depart Whiteman's Green, Cuckfield 9am returning at c.6pm
Depending on numbers, en route pick up points can be arranged

We will arrive at Goodwood House around 10.15am and have coffee/tea and biscuits in the Front Hall. This will be followed by a guided tour of the state apartments at 11am. We look forward to gaining an insight into the fascinating history and heritage of Goodwood.

The Yellow Drawing Room at Goodwood House

A partial view of the East Wall in The Carved Room showing the carvings and two paintings by Turner restored to the panelling, looking north.

After the pub lunch we will head for Petworth House arriving at approximately 2.15pm. There will be buggy transfers from the coach park to the house.

We will be free to explore the house and grounds. This visit will complement the May lecture when we will learn more about Turner and his works, a number of which are at Petworth. Room guides will be available to answer any questions.

We will enjoy a savoury buffet lunch at the Welldiggers Arms, just outside Petworth.

Drinks can be purchased at the bar.

Butcombe Brewery offers a free loyalty scheme which you may wish to consider joining.

The pub has recently been refurbished and offers full amenities together with an adjoining marquee for functions and groups.

There are also beautiful views of The Downs and surrounding countryside from the rear of the property.

We will, of course, order up some sunshine!
